

Farnborough Airport Consultative Committee

Attended a couple more FACC meetings, one online, one in person.

Planning application for traffic expansion still progressing, not aware of any outcome yet.

Meetings very polarised, little constructive dialogue.

On a more positive note, a new application for FACC local environmental support funds has gone in from one of the community organisations in Ash Vale for support with an energy efficiency project.

Cllr Richard Lucas